Obituary

(Dad) Elder Adolphus A. Carter was born to the proud parents, Evans T. and Creasie Carter on December 3, 1887 in Mexia, Texas.

He attended the public schools in the community and received his literary education. As a very young man, he met and fell in love with the late Catherine Kervin and were joined in holy matrimony on November 8, 1909 in Fairfield, Texas.

One son was added to this family and was loved and reared by them, by the name of Lorenzo Williams. In 1923, Dad and family moved to the state of Iowa where he heard the preaching of the gospel in true holiness. He was saved, sanctified, and filled with the holy ghost under the pastorage of the late Bishop George W. McGlothen. Shortly after he was saved, he was called into the ministry where he served as pastor in the state of Iowa for several years. There many souls were saved; the sick where healed and the poor were blessed through his ministry.

In 1948, he and his wife moved to the state of California and took up residency in Tracy, California. There the lord truly blessed their labor, and he was blessed to build a beautiful edifice for the lord. The church was known as The Tracy Temple Church of God in Christ. He later became District Superintendent of the Tracy district.

Because of his sincere concern for others, he gained much favor with the business district of the city of Tracy. He was shown many favors by the city of Tracy that enabled him to feed the hungry by the hundreds, give clothing for the needy, and was able to sponsor a free annual Thanksgiving and Christmas dinner for the entire community.

He was full of hospitality and was known throughout the state of California as "Uncle Buddy". He was a devout saint and loved the lord with all of his heart. He loved his wife, and honored and respected her until her passing. He remained active in the church until his health became impaired a few years ago. His devoted sister, Mother Mattie McGlothen moved him near her and to see and care for him during his last illness. He could not overcome his afflictions and on June 1, 1985, he expired.

He is survived by a devoted sister, Mother Mattie McGlothen of Richmond, California, one brother, Mr. Homer Carter of Des Moines, Iowa, a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, from California, Nevada, Arizona, Iowa and other states as well as a host of other saintly sisters and brothers.

"Goodnight Uncle Buddy, We'll See You in the Morning".
